THE HORRIFYING AMERICAN ROOTS OF NAZI EUGENICS

Fabio Gabrielli's old Auschwitz sign has recently been set up at the Allentown Women's Center (AWC) and it has caused quite a stir with the pro-aborts. They seem to think there is no connection to abortion and that we are using an emotional issue unfairly to represent our pro-life views, that AWC is a death camp similar to Auschwitz, where hundreds of thousands of innocent people were killed. Well, read on.

In the article "The Horrifying American Roots of Nazi Eugenics," Edwin Black reveals the connection between Hitler and his quest for the "Master Race" and the American Eugenics movement, already in progress when he came to power! California was considered an epicenter of the American eugenics movement, and there was extensive financing by Americans, specifically Carnegie Institution, Rockefeller Foundation and the Harriman railroad fortune.

Interestingly, many of us have equated Margaret Sanger's known views on eugenics with those of Hitler, but it is still shocking to think that she was well into the eugenics movement before Hitler! For example, Dr. William Robinson in Birth Control or The Limitation of Offspring, published by the Eugenics Publishing Company and written in 1916 (!), wrote: "And Mrs. Sanger is now serving thirty days in Long Island City Jail, while her sister, Mrs. Ethel Byrne, is recovering from the effect of an eleven days' hunger strike." (It seems Margaret Sanger had her teachers and handlers, just as Mr. Obama has his -- Saul Alinsky for one.)

"Eugenics was the racist pseudoscience determined to wipe away all human beings deemed 'unfit,' preserving only those who conformed to a Nordic stereotype. Elements of the philosophy were enshrined as national [American] policy by forced sterilization and segregation laws, as well as marriage restrictions, enacted in twenty-seven states. Thousands were sterilized, and nearly half of the coerced sterilizations were done in California."

In 1904, the Carnegie Institution established a laboratory complex at Cold Spring Harbor on Long Island. They plotted the removal of families, bloodlines and whole peoples, such as those of Jewish and Italian descent.

They even propagandized for the Nazis.

“In an America demographically reeling from immigration upheaval and torn by post-Reconstruction chaos, race conflict was everywhere in the early twentieth century. Elitists, utopians and so-called ‘progressives’ fused their smoldering race fears and class bias with their desire to make a better world.... The most commonly suggested method of eugenicide in America was a ‘lethal chamber’ or public locally operated gas chambers. In the book, Applied Eugenics, written in 1918, a chapter, ‘Lethal Selection’ operated through the destruction of the individual by some adverse feature of the environment, such as excessive cold, or bacteria, or bodily deficiency...Some doctors practiced passive eugenics one newborn infant at a time. Other doctors in mental institutions engaged in lethal neglect.”

“Even the United States Supreme Court endorsed aspects of eugenics. In its infamous 1927 decision, Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote, ‘It is better for all the world, if instead of waiting to execute degenerative offspring for crime, or to let them starve for their imbecility, society can prevent those who are manifestly unfit from continuing their kind...Three generations of imbeciles are enough’ This decision opened the floodgates for thousands to be coercively sterilized or otherwise persecuted as subhuman. Years later, the Nazis at the Nuremberg trials quoted Holmes’ words in their own defense.”

“Only after eugenics became entrenched in the United States was the campaign transplanted into Germany, in no small measure through the efforts of California eugenicists, who published booklets idealizing sterilization and circulated them to German officials and scientists... In Mein Kampf, published in 1924, Hitler quoted American eugenic ideology and openly displayed a thorough knowledge of American eugenics, and wrote a fan letter to Madison Grant calling his race-based eugenics book, The Passing of the Great Race his ‘bible.’ “

“Hitler’s struggle for a superior race would be a mad crusade for a Master Race. Now, the American term

‘Nordic’ was freely exchanged with ‘Germanic’ or ‘Aryan.’ Race, science, racial purity and racial dominance became the driving force behind Hitler’s Nazism. Nazi eugenics would ultimately dictate who would be persecuted in a Reich-dominated Europe, how people would live, and how they would die. Doctors would devise eugenic formulas, and even hand-select the victims for sterilization and mass extermination.”

“More than just providing the scientific roadmap, America funded Germany’s eugenic institutions, including money from Rockefeller to build a brain institute, led by Hitler’s henchmen Ernst Rudin. Rudin’s organization became a prime director and recipient for the murderous experimentation and research conducted on Jews, Gypsies and others.” The Kaiser Wilhelm Institute also began studies on twins, with Rockefeller funding. An assistant from there was Dr. Josef Mengele, became head the research at Auschwitz with permission of SS Reichsfurher Himmler... Mengele began searching for the boxcar arrival of twins. When he found them, he performed beastly experiments, scrupulously wrote up the reports and sent the paperwork back to the institute for evaluation. Often, cadavers, eyes and other body parts were also dispatched to Berlin’s eugenic institutes. Rockefeller executives never knew of Mengele and had ceased supporting them by the time of the war, but the die was cast.” Auschwitz was surely a death camp.

After the war, eugenics was declared a crime against humanity, but has it ended? We now have worse: legal abortion (mothers convinced to kill their young - 53 million babies killed in America), sterilization, genocide of the Blacks, embryonic stem cell research, March of Dimes, genetic profiling, etc. all in the name of “good“ & we’re the domestic terrorists?

Kay's Korner --

While I was on vacation, there was an article, several pages long with many photos, in the 7/18/10 issue of the St. Petersburg Times. It was a shocking report on a sex/love triangle involving teens.

Sarah and Rachel grew up in Pinnellis Park and attended the same high school. Josh also attended their high school. The article started out with the following description: "Josh Camacho was small and brash, a 19 year old with no car, no job, a fist full of blunts, tats on his back and chest, and a smooth patter for the girls." Sarah Ludmann "didn't have any experience with guys." Rachel Wade "was a boy magnet for years."

Josh was to have said to them, "If you love me, you'll fight for me." And so they did. It started with fights with silly string, to taunts and threats on the internet, to a fatal knife assault.

A psychologist in the area, who specializes in teens, said, when teens "finally feel like they belong to someone, or that someone belongs to them, it comes down to ownership." He also said that "a love triangle can turn into a property dispute," that girls are "more likely to kill over relationships" and boys are "more likely to kill while committing crimes like robbing a store or selling drugs."

I think many students do not see the impact or the danger of prematurely embarking down the path of sexual intimacy. It's not only babies, abortion, and venereal disease. It's something deeper, more powerful, and more painful. Once Catholic teacher refers to it as "babies and bonding" -- the plan God had to protect and nurture the family.

I wish all young girls could understand this. I wish they all could have better judgment of character. I wish none of them had to die bleeding in the street.

Sarah's last call was to Josh. "It hurts," she gasped as she slid to the street.

In Josh's sworn deposition, he said Sarah and Rachel were not his girlfriends, "just friends with benefits." He ran off to New York with no charges and left his baby and his "baby's mama" in Florida -- never having supported them. They were the two other victims of his irresponsibility.

Rachel and was found guilty of 2nd degree murder and received a sentence of 20 ½ years to life.

The Philadelphia Daily News 8/20/10 issue reported an epidemic of sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) in Philadelphia and concern for Pennsylvania. In Philly, Chlamydia is now reported in one out of every 10 females aged 15-19! Syphilis is also on the rise with young-adult population. Gonorrhea is up 26 percent in the first six months compared to last year. Gonorrhea disproportionately affects teens and young adults. So, the city's Department of Public Health issued an advisory warning. Sadly, what is their advice? "(1) Patients should know their partners, (2) make sure their partners are tested and (3) use condoms every time they have sex, and that includes using barrier protection during oral sex." Know your partner?? For how long? Will partners test and tell? Use condoms that have a reasonably high failure rate? Not one mention of the A word. How about, marry that special person, who, by the way, should be of the opposite sex, as God intended, and then have sex?

The article also gives grim details of the consequences of STDs: "STDs aren't pretty. They generally involve sores, sometimes oozing sores. They can be painful and, if left untreated, can lead to serious side effects like infertility. Research has shown that having an STD facilitates the transmission of HIV.

The Department's other "solution" is to have a roving van distribute free condoms and give free HIV tests. "We counselors recommend people getting tested at least once a year, more often if an individual falls into a high-risk category, like engaging in promiscuous behavior and/or not regularly using condoms."

LIVING HERE IN ALLENTOWN

Words to the tune of Living Here in Allentown by Billy Joel,

WELL WE'RE LIVING HERE IN ALLENTOWN
WHERE LARGE ABORTION MILLS ABOUND
THOUSANDS OF PRE BORN BABIES DEAD
THEIR INNOCENT BLOOD SHED
MOST PARENTS UNWED

WELL, WE WERE TAUGHT THAT LIFE IS DEAR
BUT ABORTION AND CHOICE ARE HERE
BABIES TOO IN THE WAY,
GUYS READY TO PAY
THE PAIN WILL GO AWAY
AND WE'RE LIVING HERE IN ALLENTOWN

BUT THE GUILT WAS HANDED DOWN
AND IT GETS VERY HARD TO PRAAAAAAA
AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA
AAHHHHHHH

WELL WE'RE WAITING HERE IN ALLENTOWN
FOR THE HOLOCAUST TO SOON BE GONE
FOR GROWNUPS TO BE FOUND
TO TURN THINGS AROUND
AND CLEAN UP THE TOWN

SO THE NUMBERS CONTINUE TO CLIMB
AND THIS KILLING ISN'T EVEN A CRIME
THE BABIES AREN'T MISSED
BUT THEY'LL NEVER BE KISSED
EXCEPT IN THE MIND

AND WE'RE LIVING HERE IN ALLENTOWN
THERE'S INNOCENT BLOOD ON THE GROUND
SO PEOPLE PLEASE PRAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAY
AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA
PRAAAAAAAAAAY PRAAAAY

EVERY CHILD CONCIIVED SHOULD HAVE A
CHANCE TO BE BIRTHED
THIS NEW LIFE IS PRECIOUS AND HAS WORTH
IF SOMETHING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE MILL
THEY'D SAY HE'D BEEN KILLED
BUT INSIDE HE'S TRASHED, OH, OH,OH

WELL I'M LIVING HERE IN ALLENTOWN
PEOPLE JUST LOOK AWAY
PRETEND IT'S OK
INSTEAD THEY SHOULD PRAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAY
PRAAAAAAAAAAYYYYYYYYYYYYYYYYY
PRAAAAY PRAAAAY PRAAAAY OH OH
OH

AND IT'S GETTING VERY HARD TO STAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAY
AND WE'RE LIVING HERE IN ALLENTOWN

NEW SCHOOL PRAYER

It's the start of another school year. Please pray for the children of our country. God help them!

Now I sit me down in school
Where praying is against the rule
For this great nation under God
Finds mention of him very odd.

If scripture now the class recites,
It violates the Bill of Rights.
And anytime my head I bow
Becomes a Federal matter now.

Our hair can be purple, orange and green,
That's no offense; it's a freedom scene..
The Law is specific, the Law is precise.
Prayers spoken aloud are a serious vice.

For praying in a public hall
Might offend someone with no faith at all.
In silence alone we must meditate,
God's name is prohibited by the state.

We're allowed to cuss and dress like freaks,
And pierce our noses, tongues and cheeks...
They've outlawed guns, but FIRST the Bible.
To quote the Good Book makes me liable.
We can elect a pregnant senior queen,
And the "unwed daddy," our Senior King.
It's inappropriate to teach right from wrong,
We're taught that such "judgments" do not belong.

We can get our condoms and birth controls,
Study witchcraft, vampires and totem poles.
But the Ten Commandments are not allowed,
No word of God must reach this crowd.

It's scary here I must confess,
When chaos reigns the school's a mess.
So, Lord, this silent plea I make:
Should I be shot; My soul please take!
